ICCROM Annual Report 2016, Issue 42

ICCROM is pleased to present the release of its 2016 annual report. For this 60th anniversary edition, ICCROM has partnered with renowned photojournalist, Reza. His photographs capture ICCROM's core philosophy: the critical bond between humanity and culture, and the power of both to build better societies.

RE-ORG Nigeria: project implementation across the country

The first RE-ORG workshop ever held in Africa took place at the Jos National Museum, Nigeria in May 2017. After its conclusion, participants from 12 museums from every corner of Nigeria went back to their institutions to revise and implement their reorganization plans, using the RE-ORG methodology to tackle problems of overcrowding of objects and poor storage conditions. By the end of August 2017, all 12 museums had submitted their own "Home Projects."

Japanese Paper Course Closes

The 2017 edition of the JPC-Japanese Paper Conservation course closed in Tokyo on 15 September. This highly specialized three-week event was held from 28 August to 15 September 2017. The course aims to offer a holistic knowledge and experience of Japanese paper and Japanese traditional conservation approaches and techniques to ten conservation professionals coming from a range of Member States.
