

OUR SERVICES

- FREE ACCESS
- Open Stacks
- Reading Room
- Reference Desk
- Books and Journals in 75 languages covering all areas relevant to the conservation of heritage
- Online catalogue containing 125 000 entries
- Electronic journals database
- E-book lending
- InterLibrary Loan
- Document delivery

THE ICCROM LIBRARY

LIBRARY ACCESS

Library entrance – ICCROM
Via del Porto 13, courtyard right.

Monday-Friday from 10 am – 5 pm

Free access to researchers and the general public. No appointment is needed. Please present a photo ID at the entrance for access.

For more info: library@iccrom.org

Document delivery requests:
docdelivery@iccrom.org

ABOUT ICCROM

ICCROM is an intergovernmental organization dedicated to advancing knowledge in heritage conservation and raising awareness to the importance of protecting cultural assets for better societies. With 137 Member States, its activities touch every region of the world.

ICCROM
Via di San Michele 13
00153 Rome, Italy
iccrom@iccrom.org
+39 06585531
www.iccrom.org

"I have always imagined that
Paradise will be a kind of a Library."

- Jorge Luis Borges

OUR HISTORY

Established in 1961 in Rome, we are the leading conservation Library in the world.

Our mandate to collect, study and circulate information is embedded in Article 1 of ICCROM's Statutes.

Supporting a diversity of cultures
by ensuring a diversity of resources.

OUR MISSION

To support the community of heritage researchers and practitioners in our Member States.

OUR NETWORKS

- URBIS
<http://www.urbis-libnet.org>
- EZB Electronic Journals Library
<http://ezb.uni-regensburg.de>
- BCIN Bibliographic Database of the Conservation Information Network
<https://www.bcin.ca>