

Provisional Curriculum
 Group Training Course on Cultural Heritage Protection in the Asia-Pacific Region
 -Conservation and Management of Wooden Built Heritage-
1 September - 30 September 2022 (online)

	8/ 22 Live session	General Information Session
	9/ 1 Live session	Opening Ceremony and Course Orientation
Week 1 (9/ 1-5)	Unit 1: Global Perspectives and Challenges in Conservation of Wooden Heritage Coordinators from ICCROM, University of Tsukuba
	9/ 1 ~ Distance learning	Current State and Challenges of Cultural Heritage Protection in the Asia-Pacific Region	Self-study using the materials uploaded on course digital platform
		International Principles and Approaches on Conservation of Wooden Built Heritage
9/ 5 Live session	- Unit 1 Discussion and Q/A Session - Participant Case Study Reports (1) *		Zoom Meeting
Week 2 (9/ 5-12)	Unit 2: Protection Systems for Wooden Built Heritage in Japan Coordinator from Tokyo National Research Institute for Cultural Properties (TOBUNKEN)
	9/ 5 ~ Distance learning	-Protection systems, legal structure and administration; -Keeping traditions alive: system of securing wooden materials, carpentry tools and traditional skills for preservation	Self-study using the materials uploaded on course digital platform; Guided video on traditional materials and tools (TDB)
	9/ 8 Live session	- Unit 2 Discussion and Q/A Session - Participant Case Study Reports (2)
	Unit 3: Recording and Documentation Coordinators from The Japanese Association for Conservation of Architectural Monuments (JACAM), Nara Women's University
	9/ 8 ~ Distance learning	Survey and Recording Methods of Wooden Structures in Japan -Survey methods; -Damage investigation; -Structural analysis	Self-study using the materials uploaded on course digital platform
9/ 12 Live session	- Unit 3 Discussion and Q/A Session - Participant Case Study Reports (3)		Zoom Meeting
Week 3 (9/ 12-19)	Unit 4: Repair Methods and Restoration Coordinators from The Japanese Association for Conservation of Architectural Monuments (JACAM)
	9/ 12 ~ Distance learning	Basic Principles and Methodologies of Repraing and Restoring the Wooden Built Heritage in Japan -Project planning; -Repair methods; -Issues of restoration and rebuilding.	Self-study using the materials uploaded on course digital platform;
		Wooden structure repair process in Japan: behind the scenes	Guided video at Conservation Site in Nara (TBD)
9/ 19 Live session	- Unit 4 Discussion and Q/A Session - Participant Case Study Reports (4)		Zoom Meeting
Week 4 9/ 19-26	Unit 5 (I and II): Management and Utilisation Coordinators from ICCROM, Tokyo National Research Institute for Cultural Properties (TOBUNEKN), University of Tsukuba
	9/ 19 ~ Distance learning	Community-centred Townscape Preservation and Management in Japan	Self-study using the materials uploaded on course digital platform; Guided video at one of the adaptively reused building(s) in Kyoto and/or Nara (TBD)
		Adaptive Reuse of Wooden Cultural Properties
	9/ 22 Live session	- Unit 5 (I) Discussion and Q/A Session - Participant Case Study Reports (5)		Zoom Meeting
	9/ 22 ~ Distance learning	Heritage Impact Assessments for World Cultural Heritage Properties	Self-study using the materials uploaded on course digital platform
Disaster Risk Management for Wooden Built Heritage -Hazards and Risks -Prevention and mitigation measures
9/ 26 Live session	- Unit 5 (II) Discussion and Q/A Session - Participant Case Study Reports (6)		Zoom Meeting
		Closing Ceremony
	9/ 30	Final Report submission deadline		To be submitted by all participants

* Case Study Reports (short paper and a 10 min. presentation) shall reflect each participant country's approaches and/or issues in conservation of wooden heritage and be related to either one of the Unit topics.