ABOUT US

Cultural heritage is fundamental to sustainable development and human well-being. Yet, it needs care, protection and effective management. Those entrusted with conserving heritage need tools and support to ensure they can do their job to the best of their abilities.

ICCROM is where communities, heritage professionals and governments come together to innovate and advance knowledge. Our strength lies in shifting mindsets and creating heritage leaders for the future.

We do this through three Strategic Directions and respective objectives (SDs):

And through our commitment to the UN 2030 Sustainable Development Goals:
The objective of this Quarterly Report is to provide an overview of the activities carried out by ICCROM in the past three months, from July to September 2021. It tracks the indicators proposed in the Programme of Activities and Budget 2020-21, and presents the key facts and figures for the reporting period.

ICCROM continues to adapt and optimize its activities to better serve its Member States, during COVID-19 pandemic and beyond. Our operations remain fully aligned with the safety guidelines provided by the Host Countries and the World Health Organization.

In the past months, ICCROM has participated in many important events, including the Meeting of G20 Culture held in Rome at the Colosseum and Palazzo Barberini under the Italian G20 presidency. On this occasion, G20 Ministers of Culture and 40 cultural delegations, including ICCROM, discussed important topics concerning Cultural Heritage as a global source of sustainable development. This event led to the adoption of the Rome Declaration of the G20 Culture Ministers, calling for culture to be more effectively integrated into national economies as an opportunity for sustainable growth and international cooperation.

ICCROM has also participated in the following events:
- The Conference of Lampedusa (8-9 July 2021)
- The Soft Power Conference in Venice (29 August – 1 September 2021);
- The International Cultural Forum “Central Asia at the Crossroad of World Civilizations” in Khiva, Uzbekistan (14-15 September 2021);

After having hosted its fourth meeting of the Finance and Audit Committee at the end of September, ICCROM is now completing preparations for the Council C95 (25-26 October 2021) and the XXXII General Assembly (27-28 October 2021) meetings. We look forward to welcoming our Member States in this first-ever online General Assembly.

I take this occasion also to announce the release of the Annual Report 2020, a year like no other, highlighting the results achieved last year thanks to the support of our Member States and 267 international partners.

We have also concluded an assessment of the outcomes of all ICCROM courses, internships, and fellowships implemented in the last biennium (2018-2019). It is part of the organization’s monitoring and evaluation initiative to better demonstrate the impact of its activities, and to improve the provision of services to the Member States. A summary of ICCROM’s overall performance is presented in this report. Additional information on specific flagship programmes and other activities will be shared in subsequent quarterly reports.

ICCROM remains fully committed to improve its services on a continual basis, enabling the preservation of cultural heritage in all of its forms, for the benefit of all people. This is particularly relevant in the current Decade of action to deliver the UN 2030 Sustainable Development Goals, which calls for accelerating sustainable solutions through cultural heritage.
COVID-19 + ICCROM’S RESPONSE

Impact on ICCROM activities

A number of activities continue to be impacted by COVID-19, particularly those that require access to ICCROM premises. As part of the organization’s response to the still ongoing pandemic, most of the activities planned for July - September 2021 have been originally conceived to take place online. This section reports on the impacted activities, the type of impact, and where they were supposed to take place. It also shows how they are distributed according to the Strategic Directions and Objectives they refer to. No financial losses reported.

Left: activities impacted this quarter by the COVID-19 crisis.

Right: the type of impact.
Top: map where the activities would have taken place.
Bottom: the number of the activity impacted by Strategic Direction. Several activities refer to more than one Strategic Direction.

| SD1 | 1 Activities impacted |
| SD2 | 14 Activities impacted |
| SD3 | 5 Activities impacted |
Delivering meaningful content online

In addition to the various lectures, meetings, and training sessions implemented online as part of different programmes and activities, the ICCROM Lecture Series continues as a key channel to deliver meaningful content to the heritage professional community, as per the table below. The map illustrates the geographic distribution of the speakers. Webinars continue to be delivered in several languages to promote diversity and reach a wider audience worldwide.

MONITORING RESULTS, MEASURING IMPACT

Utilizing the framework of indicators proposed for the current Programme of Activities and Budget, the progress made in the third quarter of 2021 is quantified below.
OUTCOMES OF ICCROM CAPACITY BUILDING ACTIVITIES IN 2018-2019

The outcomes of all courses implemented in the 2018-2019 biennium have been measured through self-assessed improvements in participants’ behaviour, attitude, professional status, knowledge, and skills brought about as a result of undertaking the activity. The graphs below summarize the results aggregated across all ICCROM programmes.

ICCROM Courses 2018-2019 - Aggregate outcomes

HOW WE MEASURE SUCCESS

The fraction of course participants rating their improvement as ‘Totally’ or ‘A lot’ (the success indicator adopted for this evaluation) is shown below for each assessed criterion.

- 53 Courses
- 1072 participants from 124 countries
- 766 survey recipients (valid email addresses 71%)
- 378 survey responses (response rate 49%)
